Ministry is not so much about addition as it is about exponential multiplication.

A diagram showing a vertical column of water. A large, solid black arrow points downwards from the top of the column, indicating the direction of flow. The column is represented by a vertical line with a shaded rectangular area in the center, suggesting a cross-section of the water body.

A vertical flowchart consisting of three empty, rounded rectangular boxes arranged vertically. Each box is connected to the one below it by a large, downward-pointing arrow. The arrows are filled with a dark, textured pattern. The boxes are also empty and have a thin black border.
