

Some Thoughts on How to Share Your Testimony

Simply write a three part story that answers or deals with the following questions.

What was your life like before you met Christ?

Avoid sensationalizing sin. Keep the past in the past. It won't make any more glorious the Cross of Christ by bringing up a horrible past. In fact, it may hurt or backfire. You can simply say, "I was living for myself and not for God." You can talk about events, people, experience, life in general).

How did you come to Christ?

What did God use or do to bring you to Himself? Was it an event (s), a person , an experience (s)? Was there a particular Scripture that God used?

How has your life changed since you became a Christian?

Avoid "performance" or a "being good" way of explaining what having a relationship with God means. Focus on what Jesus has done for you and in you; like your perspective, peace, direction in life, hope in midst of a difficult time. Use Scripture that God has used in your life.
