

TRUTH

It is better to be united in the truth
than to be divided in error.

It is better to speak the truth that hurts then heals than a lie that comforts then kills.

It is better to be hated for telling the truth
than to be loved for telling a lie.

It is better to stand alone for the truth
than to stand with the multitudes in error.

It is better to ultimately succeed with the truth than to temporarily succeed with a lie.

TRUTH

Pastor Adrian Rogers- Religious Broadcaster Convention, 1997

1- It is better to be united in the truth than to be divided in error.

- Ephesians 4:3
- Amos 3:3
- 2 Corinthians 6:14
- Matthew 10:34

2- It is better to speak the truth that hurts then heals than a lie that comforts then kills.

- .
- .
- .
- .

3- It is better to be hated for telling the truth than to be loved for telling a lie.

- Galatians 4:16
- Biblical Examples
 - Moses to Pharaoh
 - Jonathan to King David "You are the man"
 - Stephen preaching
 - Paul preaching
 - Jesus preaching to the people, and then to the disciples, "If they hate you they have hated me first."

4- It is better to stand alone for the truth than to stand with the multitudes in error.

- .
- .
- .
- .

5- It is better to ultimately succeed with the truth than to temporarily succeed with a lie.

- .
- .
- .
- .

Woodrow Wilson said, "I'd rather temporarily fail with a cause that will ultimately succeed than to temporarily succeed with a cause that will ultimately fail."